

Ezekiel Redmond

60 Clover Dr., Apt. 43, Pittsburgh, PA 15236
(717) 917-9710 || ezekieljredmond@gmail.com

CAREER OBJECTIVES

Aviation Maintenance student at the Pittsburgh Institute of Aeronautics, pursuing an A&P Certification and an Associate Degree in Specialized Technology. Creating a strong foundation in airframe and power plant systems while maintaining a strong ethic in safety and hard work. Seeking an A&P role with a company that values precision and continuous improvement.

LICENSES AND CERTIFICATIONS

- Airframe and Powerplant (A&P) Certification – Expected 6/19/26

EDUCATION

Pittsburgh Institute of Aeronautics – West Mifflin, PA

Aviation Maintenance Program

10/2024 - 6/2026

GPA – 3.85/4.00

- Associate's Degree in Specialized Technology – Aviation Maintenance Technology

Academic Highlights:

- Student Ambassador
- Student Volunteer
- Class President
- Dean's List

Relevant Coursework and Skills:

- Reciprocating and Turbine Engines
- Airframe and Sheet Metal
- Aircraft Electrical Systems
- FAA Regulations and Maintenance
- NDI and Structural Inspections
- Aircraft Systems Troubleshooting

EMPLOYMENT EXPERIENCE

Crunch – Pleasant Hills, PA

Club Service Attendant (Promoted)

1/2026 - Current

- Perform preventative maintenance, inspections, and minor repairs to ensure compliance with corporate safety standards
- Manage digital work orders and coordinate corrective vendor repairs
- Conduct audits and provide technical training to staff to maintain operational reliability and safety compliance

Janitorial/Maintenance

4/2025 - 1/2026

- Clean and maintain gym facilities to support safety and cleanliness

Target – Lancaster, PA

Front of Store Attendant

3/2022 - 8/2024

- Maintained carts and assisted with front-end operations to ensure safety and efficiency

References Available Upon Request